

Topic 10

THE READINESS PROCESS

United States

Naval Reserve Force

Supporting the Fleet

A. Introduction

This lesson will help you better understand Naval Reserve readiness in terms of assets and processes. Understanding the readiness process will better prepare you for understanding mobilization.

B.

10.1 STATE the purpose of “Readiness”

10.2 DESCRIBE the relationship between

capabilities, mission and resources as they relate to readiness.

B.
(c)

United States

Naval Reserve Force

Supporting the Fleet

occurrences,

changing both the Active Duty and

the Naval Reserve

“Readiness”.

10.4 STATE the readiness
factors that are controlled by the Navy /

Naval

Reserve and the civilian

COMNAVRESFOR

Mobilization Plans and Readiness

Deborah L. Bishop

Naval Reserve Mission

“Provide trained units and qualified persons available for active duty in the armed forces in time of war or national emergency and at such other times as the national security requires.”

Readiness Reporting Evolution

- Reserve force readiness is defined as “Readiness to Mobilize”
- Training has historically been the focal point of readiness
- Desert Shield/Storm provided valuable lessons about true readiness to mobilize

READINESS REPORTING GUIDANCE

- COMNAVRESFORINST 3501.1K of
26 May 1998
- NWP 1-03.3 -

READINESS REPORTING

USN

Status of Resources and Training System

SORTS

USNR

SORTS - Commissioned Units

RTSS - Augment Units

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

- Individual SelRes
- Unit Commanding Officer
- Naval Reserve Activity

READINESS DETERMINATION (RTSS/RSTARS)

- INDIVIDUAL: $CTRN - CROVL$
- UNIT: $CTRN + CPERS = CROVL$

TRAINING READINESS

- CTRN: ITP training completed by individual/unit
- REPORT: IRAD codes RSTARS TM/MP
- FORMULA:

$$\text{CTRN} = \frac{\text{Sum of IRADS (local \& CAI)}}{\text{Number of personnel}}$$

Number of personnel

PERSONNEL MANNING READINESS

- CPER: Percent of unit billets filled
- REPORT: RSTARS (MP)
- FORMULA:

CPER - Number of personnel assigned

Number of MOB billets

ADMINISTRATIVE PREPAREDNESS

- REQUIREMENTS: BUPERSINST 1001.39C
- SAMPLE AREAS:
 - Page 2's
 - Dependent Care Certificates (OPNAV 1740/1)
 - Powers of Attorney
 - Direct Deposit

MEDICAL PREPAREDNESS

- MEDICAL: Status of physical/dental exam
- REPORTED: RSTARS(MM)

Medical Module

Monitors: Physicals

Dental

HIV

Immunization

Right Reservist

Right Equipment

Right Place

Right Time

EVERY